

Mrs. Eloise Seay Mathis

Mrs. Mathis is 95 years old. She was born and raised in the mill house located right beside the ballpark on Brewster Street. She has a keen memory and remembers many things about the ballpark and Pacolet over the years. She and her granddaughter, Drenda-Michell Brennan, have been kind enough to share some stories that Mrs. Mathis remembers.

One story is about a long ago, and mostly forgotten, deadly event that took place at the ball park. You can read it at Tragedy at the Ballpark.

Interviews

She and her granddaughter, Drenda have agreed for Mrs. Mathis to be interviewed and provide other stories about Pacolet people, events and places in the past. The third and final interview has been finished. They can read by clicking on No. 1----- No. 2 ----- or No. 3.

Photo Albums

In preparing for the interviews, Eloise and her granddaughter, Drenda, took lots of photographs around Pacolet. These pictures are being compiled into four Photo Albums about Pacolet scenes. All four have been completed and can be seen at:

<http://pacoletmemories.com/Album17.pdf> - In the Vicinity of the Amphitheater, Hotel Hill, and the Old Hotel Remains

<http://pacoletmemories.com/Album18.pdf> - In the Vicinity of the New Mill, the Dam, the Pacolet River and the Cloth Room

<http://pacoletmemories.com/Album19.pdf> - The Pacolet Mills Ballpark as it Exists Today

<http://pacoletmemories.com/Album20.pdf>- In the vicinity of the Town Hall, The Pacolet Mills Baptist Church and The Old Cotton Gin In Pacolet Station

Return to Sharing Memories

Return to Pacolet Memories Home Page