Miss Ann Millwood Celebrates Birthday

Little Miss Ann Millwood celebrated her 5th birthday with a party at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Seay, Saturday evening, July 23. Games under the direction of Miss Neleen Seay, Mrs. Marie Thompson, and Mrs. Wallace Mathis, were enjoyed by all.

Delicious refreshments, consisting of sandwiches, mints, birthday cake, and coca-cola were served by the hostess, Mrs. Boss Millwood, Mrs. Howard Gilbert, and Mrs. W. K. Seay. About 50 of Ann's friends attended the party.

PRESENTED IN RECITAL

On Friday evening, July 15, 1949, Prof. Wilson Price of Spartanburg, presented Mrs. C. T. Holland and Miss Mildred Holland in a joint voice, piano and organ recital at the Pacolet Mills Baptist Church.

Several hundred friends attended this delightful program, during which they were invited to a tea in the Social Hall of the Church.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Trent and Mr. and Mrs. John Earl Hogan spent the Fourth in Kentucky and Tennessee.

Additional Pictures on Back Page

On August 1st in the Pacolet Mills store building, the Messrs Arthur of Union, will hold the opening of their general merchandise store. They will carry full lines of men's wear, ladies ready to wear, shoes, hardware, dry goods, notions, and general electrical appliances.

Mr. John P. Poole of Buffalo, will be in charge of the local store and will be assisted by Edward Robinette, Mrs. Estelle Montgomery, who will be in charge of ladies' ready to wear, and another lady who has not yet been chosen.

Mr. H. M. Arthur of Union, is president, and Mr. A. A. Arthur is vice president.

We welcome these newcomers to our community and wish for them every success in their new undertaking.

"ONE STOP"

Pacolet is fortunate in having a one-stop shopping center. With the new merchandise store being opened up, and with the drug store and grocery store all in the same building, it is very convenient for shoppers who wish to do their week's shopping at one trip.

DRUG STORE

Dr. T. M. Jarrett of Lockhart and Mr. B. J. Littlefield of Jonesville who own the Pacolet Drug Store have operated it for almost two years. They carry a full pharmaceutical and prescription line, sick room supplies, magazines, drugs, sodas and sundries.

The personnel consists of the owners and Miss Marjorie Montgomery, Miss Marjorie Montgomery.

Shop Has Fine Safety Record

Shop No. 5 has the distinction of having gone for five years without a lost time accident. This is a wonderful record, since shop work is probably the most dangerous work in the mill.

This record shows that each employee in this department is safety conscious, and is trying in every way to correct all hazards.

We are hoping that every department will work toward this goal. This can only be done by the cooperation of each individual employee. Let this honor be a challenge to each department to keep down LOST TIME ACCIDENTS.

PACOLET MILLS SCHOOL OPENING

The Pacolet Mills School Term 1949-1950 will open August 29, 1949. All children entering first grade please bring birth certificates.

Montgomery Memorial Methodist Church Has Active Program

The work of our church is going forward these summer days. Our attendance is holding up remarkably well.

The members of the Wesleyan Service Guild recently went on a picnic to Rainbow Lake. Husbands and friends were invited to share the evening with them.

On August 1 the members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service will have their annual picnic with husbands and friends as guests.

The Youth Fellowship is having good attendance each Sunday evening at the close of the preaching service. They, too, had their last social at Rainbow Lake. On July 25 they attended the Sub District Youth Fellowship at Cannon's Camp Ground Methodist Church.

Last Sunday morning, Mr. Ray E. Lee, vice chairman of the Board of Stewards, presented Church

School Superintendent, Mr. J. Harold Holmes, with a check as a token of our love and appreciation of his fine services and asked that he attend the Conference of Church School Superintendents of the Southeastern Jurisdiction at Lake Junaluska, N. C., July 29-31. Eldon Bullington, Secretary elect of the Spartanburg Sub District Methodist Youth Fellowship, is attending the Young Peoples' Leadership School at Lake Junaluska, N. C., July 19-29.

Services for the remainder of the summer will be as follows:—Church School at 10 A.M.; morning worship at 11 and evening worship at 8 o'clock. We urge all our members to attend and any who have not established a church home are most cordially invited to come to our church.
—H. E. BULLINGTON,
Minister.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Brown and Pat of Camp LeJune, N. C., spent the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Tate.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mathis and Billy and Mr. and Mrs. Amos Glass spent the holidays at Mount Mitchell, N. C.

How To Kill Your Preacher

- Don't attend the Sunday evening service.
- Don't attend the prayer meeting.
- Only hear him when "convenient".
- Habitually come late.
- Sit just inside the door.
- Don't give him your attention.
- Rush out as soon as the service ends.
- Act cold to show your dignity.
- Never thank him for his message.
- Never appreciate his efforts.
- Tell him what wonderful messages you hear elsewhere.
- Criticize him before your children.
- Don't make him welcome when he calls.
- Criticize him for not calling.
- Accuse his wife of trying to run things.
- Don't offer to help.
- Don't take your Sunday guest to hear him.
- Don't inform him when you are ill.
- Don't pray for him.
- Don't do what he says.
- (What about going thoughtfully over the list again and see if you are guilty of some of these things).
—Thanks to The I-C Merry-Go-Round.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lowery, Ruth Mathis and Ruth Goforth, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wilkins, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crawford, Miss Virginia McGaha, Misses Elizabeth and Kathleen Turner, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Brown spent their vacation at Charleston, S. C.

Mrs. Estelle Montgomery and Miss Ruby Brown spent several days in New York, N. Y., recently. They traveled by plane.

National Guardsmen Return From Two Week Encampment At Jackson

Heavy Tank Company 218th Infantry, Pacolet's National Guard Company, returned from Fort Jackson on Sunday, July 17th after two weeks of intensive training. Every member enjoyed his encampment and also received a lot of valuable training during the two weeks.

Upon arrival at Ft. Jackson the company was issued a new M26 tank. This tank, one of the latest models, weighs 46 tons, is powered by a 500 horsepower Ford motor, has hydraulic drive, and can be driven from either side. On the tank there is a 90mm gun, two 30 cal. machine guns and one 50 cal. machine gun. Every member of the company drove the tank, fired the 90mm gun and the 30 cal. machine gun. The company expects to receive more of these new tanks in the very near future. This new tank made a total of four in the company.

Immediately after returning from Ft. Jackson the Company started moving into the newly constructed National Guard building.

This building was primarily constructed for a garage storage building, to be used as a temporary armory until funds are available to build an armory. The building that the Company now occupies has an orderly room, supply room, shower room, strong room, and a large room upstairs that can be used as a classroom or storage room. With this building, training can be carried on better than ever before.

The Company was commended on the training at Ft. Jackson and we have been given priority on an armory due to the fact that the Company has reached full strength and that the unit has made considerable progress during the past few months.

As soon as we can get things straightened out in the new building, we expect to display our tanks, weapons, and equipment and have a day of open house to the public. We invite the public to visit us at any time. Pay us a visit and see what the New National Guard is doing.

Baptist Church Gets Several Improvements

For the last several weeks we have been renovating the auditorium of the Pacolet Mills Baptist Church. The following changes and improvements have been made: The choir has been changed from one side to the center and back of the pulpit. The rostrum has been extended seven feet. The baptistry has been removed from the center and back of rostrum to one side and to the front of the rostrum.

The organ console has been placed on the floor of the auditorium and at the opposite end of the rostrum from the baptistry. The floors have been sanded and waxed and the old carpet replaced with a new one on all the aisles and rostrum. A cooling system has been installed in the auditorium and also in the educational building back of the main building.

The new fluorescent lighting fixtures are here and ready to be installed.

In the near future we expect to have a home coming day and dedicate all these new improvements.

THE HISTORY OF COTTON TEXTILES

No. 4 of a Series

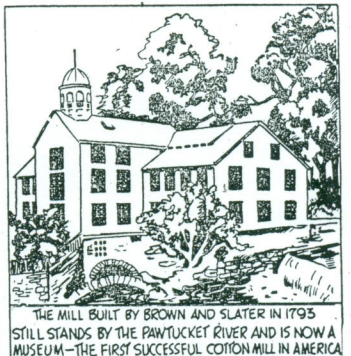

By ANDREW L. PETERSEN

SAMUEL SLATER successfully launched America's textile industry in 1790 when he rebuilt all the machinery in the mill of Moses Brown at Pawtucket, R.I., where the equipment was so crude that he found it worthless. Without plans or the assistance of skilled mechanics, Slater relied solely on his memory to re-create exactly the famous spinning frame of Sir Richard Arkwright, British manufacturer. Slater thus introduced principles which underlie present-day textile manufacturing.

BY AN AMAZING MEMORY FEAT, SLATER REPRODUCES THE ARKWRIGHT SPINNING FRAME.

THE TRIUMPHAL DAY COMES WHEN SLATER INSTALLS HIS FIRST MACHINE IN BROWN'S MILL.

Sports

TROJANS ARE LEADING THE E. C. LEAGUE—NOW

With the Eastern Carolina Pennant race nearing an end the Pacolet Trojans are barely occupying first place — subject to change at any time.

The flag chase thus far this season has been one of the tightest in many years, with four teams dominating the pennant race. Excelsior, Pacolet, Mills Mill and Inman have been neck and neck all season with the other four teams of the circuit being as tough foes as the league leaders.

Pacolet has emerged victorious in two 13-inning contests this season, Mills Mill and Brandon being the losers.

Not one, but all of the Pacolet players have shown their ability to compete equally and fairly with other players and it is through their hustle that Pacolet hopes to win the pennant once again.

GIRLS' SOFTBALL

The Girls' Softball teams of the village have been undergoing a series of strenuous practices and exhibition games. The girls are to be commended for their excellent interest and spirit they display during practice games. It is through their efforts that a good softball team may be developed within a considerable period of time.

The girls have tasted defeat twice, the McLellan Lassies being the victors in both occasions. The first game was a loss of 16-4 to the more experienced McLellan Lassies, while the second game found the Pacolet Girls greatly improved and the score was 10-1. With more experience our girls will give any team a good battle.

The 14-17 age group have been practicing consistently and will be able to give a good account of themselves.

NOTICE

All the people of the village are invited to use the playground that is located behind the Y. M. C. A.

They may choose between volleyball, softball and horse shoe pitching. All the equipment may be checked out at the Y.M.C.A.

Girl Scouts Have Active Program

The Girl Scouts are continuing their summer activities with swimming parties, picnics, etc.

Tuesday, July 12, they went swimming at State Park and enjoyed a picnic afterwards.

Saturday, July 16 they also enjoyed swimming and a weiner roast at State Park. About 30 girls attended these events.

They are also enjoying softball. On Thursday, July 21, they gave the 14-17 age group some stiff competition.

The following members of the Girls Auxiliary are attending the G. A. Camp at Camp Rawls this week: Janice Kirby, Billy Ann Lee, Phyllis Parker, Gail and Nancy Wilkins.

Mr. Jimmie Sutton, Victor Brown, Olin Cook and D. Pressley spent the week of the Fourth with Mr. Sutton's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Sutton of Blue Ridge, Georgia.

TRUBBLES

I've got a heap of troubles, an' I've got t' wuk 'em out. But I looks around and sees dere's troubles all about. An' when I see my troubles I jes' looks up an' grin, and counts all de troubles dat I ain't in.

Worry is a lot like a rocking chair—it gives you something to do, but won't get you any place.—The Gilcrafter.

He Liked Everybody

"When I die," Will Rogers once said, "my epitaph, or whatever you call those things on gravestones, is going to read: 'I joke about every prominent man of my time, but I never met a man I didn't like.' I'm so proud of that I can hardly wait to die so it can be carved, and when you come around to my grave you will probably find me there proudly reading it."

When they built the memorial to Will Rogers on the top of Cheyenne Mountain, in Colorado, they remembered his wish. Below the bronze bust of the famous humorist appear these words: "I never met a man I didn't like." When I saw this memorial, Will was not there proudly looking at it—at least I didn't see him. But I'm sure there was a twinkle in the bronze eyes.

Will Rogers lived up to his epitaph. He met men with an open hand and an open heart. He looked for the best in the worst of us. He found something good and fine in everyone. He had no room in his mind for jealousy, resentment, or ill will. He held no grudges. He was too big to dislike people.

Too often we are prejudiced toward a man, even before we meet him. We look for faults and point the finger of scorn — and it is pointed right back at us. Our minds are magnets and attract to us, from others, the thoughts we hold toward them. We need not speak—folks get our mental wave length and tune us in, or out.

What a grand world this would be if more of us practiced the art of liking everyone. A search for the good in others will reveal an astonishing amount of pure gold. There is something to like about everyone if we only look for it.

IT IS SAID

A delegation of American workers, visiting Soviet automobile factories, asked the comrades: "Who owns these factories?"

"The workers", was the reply. "They are common property."

"And who rides in these cars?"

"Hm--hm---Comrade Stalin, all the members of the Politburo, our glorious army, and the most illustrious patriots."

Sometime later a Soviet delegation visited auto factories in America.

"Who owns these factories?" they asked.

"Mr. X."

"And who rides in all these cars?"

"The American workers." was the reply.

The Value of a Smile

A boy was struck by the broken end of a live wire which touched one side of his face, burning and paralyzing it. In court the boy's lawyer asked the little fellow to turn toward the jury and smile.

He tried. One side of his face smiled, but the injured side just puckered up in a pitiful contortion. The jury took just twelve minutes to award the boy $20,000. The amount was thus certified as the legal value of a smile.

If a smile is worth $20,000 after you lose it, it must be worth that much while you still have it. A friendly smile and a genuine interest in our fellow men are essentials for success in life.
