NEXT WEEK!

How often do I say it
When tasks begin to climb,
Next week I'll be less busy...
Next week I'll have more time,
It's then I'll go to visit
The friends I love so much;
I'll phone, I'll write, I'll manage
Somehow to keep in touch.
But days grow strangely crowded
With leisure only crumbs;
Next week I'll be less busy,
Next week that never comes.

Current Safety Contest

(This contest began July 1, 1954 and ends December 19, 1954)

There will be a drawing for a special departmental prize for employees working in the department which has had a lost time accident frequency of 8 or less points, but the employee who had the lost time accident will not be permitted to participate.

There will be a drawing for a grand prize for each mill at the end of the contest period for those employees who have not had a lost time accident during the period of this contest.

This is the way the contest frequency is figured:

Each lost time accident will count 30 points against the department.

Each day lost from work because of the accident will count 4 points against the department.

Total Points X 10,000 equals Contest Frequency

Man Hours Worked

Example: John Doe had a lost time accident in July and lost 3 days.

Accident 30 points
3 days X 4 12 points

42 points

People in his Department had worked 60,074 man hours and this was the only lost time accident in the Department.

42 X 10,000 equals 420,000 equals 6.99 Contest Frequency

60,074 60,074

The prizes to be given will be announced in the near future and will be put on display in the Girls Club sometime before the drawing.

Parties Held At The Girls Club

One of the most interesting parties held at the club since the last paper came out was Mr. Foy Baker's birthday party. Mrs. Baker really pulled a good one on Foy that time. He had received an invitation to come to the club to Frank Richie's party and when he arrived about 60 of his friends greeted him singing "happy birthday". He was just overcome when he realized they were singing it to him. Several interesting skits had been planned for the evening, one of which was, This Is Your Life. So of course Foy's life was enacted before him from babyhood on into manhood. This stunt proved to be very hilarious at times and we wish everyone could have seen the characters who took part in this.

BRIDAL PARTIES

Our July brides have been entertained at the club this month.

The W.S.G. entertained for Miss Marguerite Holmes Thursday night June 24th. Summer flowers were used to decorate the recreation room. The refreshment table was covered with a white cut work cloth centered with a beautiful arrangement of pink and white gladioli. After games and contests led by Shirley Wells, the honoree was presented a number of gifts for her kitchen. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Friday night, June 25th, Miss Carolyn Wells was honored with a linen shower at the club. Again mixed summer flowers were used with a gladioli arrangement centering the refreshment table. After several bridal games and contests, Miss Sara Hughes and Marguerite Holmes assisted by Miss Hughes' mother, Mrs. Bill Hughes, served a delicious molded salad, saltines, cakes, and ice tea.

Friday, July 2nd, Miss Carolyn Wells was again honored with a miscellaneous shower at the Girls Club. When entering the club the honoree was presented a corsage of carnations. She wore a flowered voile dress and was given the seat of honor. The entertainment for this party was mostly skits. The first was a scene in a dress shop where Mrs. Wells and Carolyn had gone to buy her trousseau. Miss Shirley Wells was the owner of the shop and Buddy Foster, Ken Rice, Bootsie Sullivan, Bob Wells, and Butch Trent were the models. They modeled the whole trousseau. It was a scream. After the entertainment Carolyn was asked to come into the adjoining room to open presents, a number of varied and beautiful gifts for her. Refreshments consisting of ribbon sandwiches, nuts, bridal cakes, and fresh fruit punch were served by Carolyn's aunts who were hostesses for this party.

Girl Scout Troop 17 Honors Miss Brown

Girl Scout Troop 17 hiked to the home of Cornelia Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carol Brown, of Spartanburg Route 2, taking a sunshine box and a certificate, certifying that she had been made an honorary member of the Troop, a window fan was furnished for the duration of her illness of rheumatic fever. A Bible bingo game was played. The girls sang several songs. Sheryl Jennings sang a solo. The Girl Scout Promise was given. Susan Holmes sang "The Lord's Prayer". All joined in the friendship circle with Cornelia and sang "Taps". A picnic followed.

MRS. MAMIE GIBSON PASSES
The community was saddened recently by the death of Mrs. Mamie Gibson. She had been in bad health for some time but her going was quite sudden. We extend our sympathy to the family.

MRS. JOHN WILLIAM JONES

Two Ladies Classes Give Men Banquet

The ladies of two adult classes of the Baptist church entertained the men of the church with a banquet on July 11th.

The tables in the recreation room were beautifully set and the men, bless them, were favored by being served first and I might say often, with a variety of delicious food.

Mrs. Holland had charge of the entertainment and after the dinner a program of music and stunts added to the pleasure of the evening.

These events add much to the fellowship of the church, and give people an opportunity to visit and renew friendships.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

BILLY FULLER GOFORTH celebrated his seventh birthday with a party for a number of his small friends. Joyce Goforth had charge of the entertainment and they report a grand party.

IN THE SERVICE

M/Sgt. Darvie Pugh has completed his 20 years of service in the Marines and has retired. He will make his home in Boston Mass.

Jack Loving, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Loving, has been discharged from the Army. He spent fourteen months in Korea during his enlistment.

A nice newsy letter from Avery Snapp. He says how much he and all the boys in his outfit enjoy the "Neigh". He wants to know the meaning of the word Pacolet. Says he thought it was an Indian name meaning running horse. I have the idea it is an Indian word meaning swift. I know our trademark is a running horse, and the names connect somehow. Hope someone can give us the real meaning.

Avery says at the time of his letter he was 100 miles south of Pusan. Said he had just had a visit with both John and Robert Jett. Said John was leaving for Tokyo for 7 days rest, and that he, Avery, was leaving for the States right away. He will be glad to get back to our country again.

By the way, he has made Cpl. since he has been overseas.

There are a number of boys who have entered the service, or have had changes of address, and we have not been notified. These boys are losing out on the home news and the Spartanburg Foundation bulletins, and I know they need all the home news they can get.

Shelby Kirby, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Kirby, has received his discharge from the Navy and is at home.

Miss Marguerite Holmes Becomes Bride Of Mr. John William Jones

MISS MARGUERITE JANET HOLMES, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Harold Holmes, became the bride of John William Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Jones of Spartanburg, in a beautiful ceremony at Montgomery Memorial Church on Saturday, July 24th at 7:30 p. m.

The Rev. Walter S. Pettus performed the double ring ceremony. The church was beautifully decorated in white gladioli and ferns. An ivy entwined arch flanked by seven branched candelabra, and tall urns of flowers was the central motif for the ceremony.

Mrs. Bobby Jones, organist, Mrs. Frances Robinette, soprano, and Mr. Jimmy Hodge, tenor, presented a program of wedding music.

Mrs. Jones played "Sweetest Story Ever Told" (Stults), "I Love You Truly", "Because" (d'Hardelot) and "Ave Maria" (Bach-Gonnod).

Mrs. Robinette sang "Through the Years" (Youmans). Mr. Hodge sang "I Love Thee" (Grieg) and "The Lord's Prayer" (Malotte) as a benediction.

Traditional wedding marches were used.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina length dress of duchess satin and nylon tulle, fashioned with form fitting strapless bodice and bolera of the satin, finished with a narrow pleated ruffle of tulle at the neckline and sleeves ending in points over the wrists. The full tulle skirt was accented with a peplum of satin, outlined with a pleated ruffle of tulle. Her chapel length veil of imported silk illusion, was attached to a cap embroidered in seed pearls. She carried a white prayer book topped with a purple throated white orchid.

Miss Sara Hughes, maid of honor, wore a ballerina length dress of white nylon tulle and taffeta. She also wore a bolero of white satin with a rolled collar neckline, and matching headpiece. Miss Hughes carried a nosegay of variegated carnations.

Bridesmaids were Miss Mildred Holland, Miss Carrie Jean Petty, Miss Hilda McCravey and Mrs. Mickey Danner. Their dresses and head dresses were identical with the maid of honor and they carried nosegays of red carnations.

Junior bridesmaids were Miss Susan Holmes, sister of the bride, and Miss Patsy Lee.

Best man for his brother was Walter Jones, Jr. of Spartanburg. Ushers were Gerald H. Holmes, brother of the bride, Lewis Harrison, Jr., cousin of the groom, Warren Wells and John M. Trowell.

Guests included residents of Spartanburg, Whitestone, Columbia, and Florida. For a wedding trip through the mountains of North Carolina, the bride wore a toast colored voile dress with white accessories, and an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Jones is a graduate of Pacolet High School, and attended Winthrop College. At present she is employed in the laboratory at Pacolet Mills. Mr. Jones is a graduate of Pacolet High School, and attended Clemson College. At present he is in the dairying business.

The couple will make their home at present with the groom's parents at Spartanburg, Route 2.

One man, harried and hurried and explosive because of the amount of work he thought he had to do, was told by a psychiatrist to do only six hours of work in an eight-hour day and to spend one day a week at a cemetery.

"What am I supposed to do in a cemetery?" he asked.

"Nothing much," said the psychiatrist. "Just look around. Get acquainted with some of the men already in there permanently. And remember that they didn't finish their work either. Nobody does, you know."

Bridal Group Is Honored

Marguerite Holmes and John W. Jones were entertained Saturday evening, July 17th, with a buffet supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pierce.

A color scheme of pink, green, and white was used for decorating. Centerpiece for the bride's table was a musical bride doll. A floral arrangement of gladiolas was also used.

Favors of rice bags with wedding rings attached and old fashioned miniature pipes were given each guest.

The honored guests received a gift of china in their chosen pattern. Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. Paul Robinette, of Lyman.

Miss Holmes and Mr. Jones were married July 24th at Montgomery Memorial Methodist Church, Pacolet Mills, S. C.

SENSATIONAL

"I trust you found that novel interesting," the librarian remarked hopefully.

"No, not very," the patron replied, "but the letter someone left in it for a bookmark was a lulu!"

HELPFUL TALK

*Talk happiness. The world is sad enough
 Without your woe. No path is wholly rough.
 Look for the places that are smooth and clear,
 And speak of them to rest the weary ear
 Of earth, so hurt by one continuous strain
 Of mortal discontent and grief and pain.*

*Talk faith. The world is better off without
 Your uttered ignorance and morbid doubt.
 If you have faith in God, or man, or self,
 Say so; if not, push back upon the shelf
 Of silence all your thoughts till faith shall come;
 No one will grieve because your lips are dumb.*
